Dear Mr. Smole,

I should be so grateful if you were to inform Rotary Clubs in middle-, southern-, south-eastern and south-western England of my details and availability as a speaker.

I have been a journalist and public speaker for most of my working life which by now covers half a century. I have had a second career as a clergyman – as I am a Jewb6y faith, I also enjoy the title of rabbi. As such, I have recently come to the end of a thirteen-year stint as the regional chief rabbi in North East Germany. One of my main tasks there was to assist the integration of some two thousand migrants from the former Soviet Union into Angela Merkel's modern Germany.

So these would be my topics:

- 1) Integration in an era of unprecedented mass migration. One hundred thousand migrants are said to come to this country every year, in spite of determined attempts to keep them out.
- 2) In a secular age, should different faiths be allies or remain rivals? Is ultimate truth within or beyond our grasp.
- 3) Prime ministers I have known, their difference and their likeness – in particular Harold Wilson, Harold Macmillan and Margaret Thatcher. Inevitably I have informed views also of the present incumbent.

I have a rail card, a Honda Civic, and a fit and muscular pair of legs, so can travel wide distances. I would be happy, therefore, to address Rotary occasions any time and almost anywhere.

*Yours sincerely
William Wolff*
