Dear all,

Bees for development Ethiopia conducted the third and last training modules. The training focused on: honey harvesting, quality control and bee colony dearth time management. The training was very successful. We also provided the necessary inputs for the seasonal activities. I will send more pictures during the weekend.

Have a great weekend

At our convivial breakfast meeting at the “Bear” 22nd November, I was able to correct a minor injustice that arose from our previous meeting.

My WW2 hustle quiz had produced joint worthy winners with 9 out of 13 - very respectable. The tie break question was Hitler’s age when he took his own life. President Tony said 54 and Chris Driver thought it was 46. Neither were correct but Tony was close to the correct answer, 56.

I then posed a second tie break question which Chris correctly answered and was awarded victory and the bottle of wine.

On reflection, I judged my conduct to have been wrong - there should not have been a second question.

Accordingly, I have declared Tony the winner and was happy to pay for my error with the award of a second bottle of wine.

The runner up, Chris Driver, was most magnanimous but observed dryly .. “Hope you don’t want my bottle back.”

The hustle at the breakfast meeting itself was novel - a four number bingo card - won by Derrick. Well done the other Chris, our much appreciated secretary, for a fresh idea.

With thanks to David Lockwood for this survey circular.

Last month, a world-wide telephone survey was conducted by the UN.

The only question asked was:
"Would you please give your honest opinion about possible solutions to the food shortage in the rest of the world?"

The survey was a complete failure because:
In Eastern Europe they didn't know what "honest" meant.
In Western Europe they didn't know what "shortage" meant.
In Africa they didn't know what "food" meant.
In China they didn't know what "opinion" meant.
In the Middle East they didn't know what "solution" meant.
In South America they didn't know what "please" meant.
In the USA they didn't know what "the rest of the world" meant.

And in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and Great Britain everyone hung up as soon as they heard the Indian accent.

Its that time again.
For all clubs:
Report all new or terminated members and 2018-19 club officers no later than 1 January.
◦ Members with admission dates of 1 January or before will be counted for the January 2019 club invoice.
◦ Members with terminating dates of 1 January or before will not be counted for the January 2019 club invoice.

The Editor hopes you have not been terminated!

RE District Officer and Committee Nominations for Rotary Year 2019/20
EXTENSION TO 18th Dec
Due to unforeseen circumstances we are giving clubs another 3 weeks to nominate members to key roles.
Please give this some priority even though it is a busy time of year; filling these posts is essential for us to progress into 2019/20.
I have attached the form with list of vacancies; please return to me by post or email.
Both DG Mary and DGE Miles are happy to discuss any queries you may have.

If you browse Waterstone's excellent on-line book store you will find many references to "Sun Tzu - The Art of War".

This is a famous author renowned for his wisdom. The Editor has bought two of the books and you may find it fascinating to compare war strategies, politics, business and Facebook.

Christmas holiday reading perhaps?
Duty Host and HUSTLE
Please read the Duty rota for meetings. When it is your turn in December 2018 and January 2019, please try to baffle fellow Rotarians and relieve them of £1-00. Also please provide a small prize for the winner. Please remember that if you are unable to attend you should find someone to take your duty.

The Four Way Test.
1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:
• First. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
• Second. High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian’s occupation as an opportunity to serve society.
• Third. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian’s personal, business and community life.
• Fourth. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
