Mary's Super Party

Celebrating Rotary at District Conference

The Cumbria Grand Hotel
Grange-Over-Sands

Saturday 23rd March 2019

Fellow Rotarians, guests and friends,

David and I extend a very warm welcome to you all to come and Celebrate Rotary with us at The Cumbria Hotel Grange over Sands on Saturday 23rd March 2019.

The Conference team have put together a great day of interesting speakers, suitable for both guests and Rotarians, who will celebrate the themes of Rotary.

We hope you will stay for the night on Saturday and enjoy all round entertainment from Gavin Young.

There is also accommodation available on the Friday night for a relaxed evening in the spacious hotel, beautifully refurbished to its railway hey days.

This is a very affordable conference, which will suit everyone who enjoys the fellowship and friendship of Rotary and is proud of what we achieve locally and internationally.

See you all there!

Mary xx

Saturday Night Entertainment

Gavin is a singer, host and entertainer. Quite simply, he loves singing and entertaining.

Gavin has been singing and entertaining professionally since he was 18, performing at every type of family occasion; hosting corporate award ceremonies and events. Every performance is unique, tailored specifically to the occasion to make sure that there is something for everyone.

Debbie Hodge RIBI President 2018/19 is a lively speaker who has a passion for Rotary, the Foundation Programme and Peace Resolution. She will share her belief that Rotary is a way of life and challenge us that we have not just volunteered but made a positive lifestyle choice.

Kirsten Stephenson was a member of 1190 GSE team in 2012 to the Philippines, this gave her the confidence and vision to make her career in the voluntary sector. Kirsten is now leading volunteering for Sports England.

Sarah Calderbank leads on public relations for the Lake District National Park. She will tell us how they use their media and campaigning networks to generate public support for initiatives, illustrating this with the successful bid to become a World Heritage Site.

James Cropper (Kendal) is a world leader in recycling - currently turning coffee cups into luxury wrapping and much more. They will tell us about their innovative programme and why tackling plastics and other materials are so important to the world environment.

Rachel Holliday is the chief executive of Calderwood House in Egremont which supports homeless Ex- service personnel often with mental health issues. Her personal journey is as inspiring as the work she leads and will demonstrate that with determination you can 'reach the impossible dream'.

Peta Leigh from Whitehaven Castle Rotary will demonstrate how even small clubs, with little money and an ageing membership can take on community projects.

Shelter Box is Mary's chosen charity for her year. We will hear Chris Warham tell us why Rotary is so important to Shelter Box and their new approach to tackling disasters.

There will also be a presentation from Fleetwood Rotary and their work with the family of Rotary. Public Image trophy winners will share the ideas that have made them successful this year

We will also hear about the Bee project in Ethiopia and updates on recent work in Nepal
